“ I've worked with Shalini Khemka CBE and E2E for many years. By championing entrepreneurship, building a community and offering a range of key services E2E has become a clear leader in the sector. On a personal level, I've made extraordinary connections which have led to investment in businesses looking for smart money and experience.

HUGH CHAPPELL

Shalini Khemka CBE

Chief Executive & Founder

Entrepreneurs are the lifeblood of any economy. Since 2011, E2E has focused on providing entrepreneurs with access to a unique and unparalleled ecosystem of business leaders and services to help them scale-up their businesses.

We have helped thousands of entrepreneurs to make excellent business connections, source timely investment, find Non-Executive Directors and form partnerships with world-class corporate services.

The recent pandemic and cost of living crisis have generated start-ups at record levels. The UK enjoys one of the best startup ecosystems in the world, second only to the United States. However, its world ranking for scale-up entrepreneurship is down in 25th place.

We are focused on reducing this gap. I am passionate about creating an exceptionally connected community of founders, business leaders and investors that together, with us, enable extraordinary entrepreneurship.

The UK's Leading Organisation for Entrepreneurial Connections

Community and connections are at the heart of the E2E ethos, but there are many advantages to our Ambassador membership experience to help your business to thrive and grow including these services and benefits:

We will shine a spotlight on you and your business via our digital platforms encouraging others to connect and engage with you.

“ I just wanted to say how much I enjoyed today's event. I have been to three E2E events to date and they have all been very good but today's is perhaps the best, closely followed by the evening with OCADO.... I loved the discussion around talent hires and the final question "Are you lucky?", I will use that.

JONATHAN SANDS OBE
Owner & Vexillifer, Elmwood

Connect with Extraordinary Entrepreneurs

E2E facilitates personal introductions to like-minded entrepreneurs and enables long-standing relationships to be formed via our unique events, Q&A sessions and round-table discussions.

To help you scale-up your business, you'll have the opportunity to connect with over 24,000 SME Members from 58 countries and 51 sectors as well as over 3,000 investors.

What differentiates E2E is the quality of the founders, coupled with the diverse range of services provided under one umbrella.

“ E2E is one of the rare networking gems where everyone I meet is involved with something incredible. I run a fairly esoteric niche of a scale up called ODESEA where I design and manufacture (in Vietnam) shipping containers into luxury homes and offices. It's always been a struggle to meet investors or other entrepreneurs in the manufacturing field as most startups are involved in digital technology. To my genuine surprise, I met an old colleague who is also an investor and entrepreneur himself - now he's my first investor and full-time business partner! E2E has been perfect for attracting and retaining such a strong network of experienced entrepreneurs and investors who think outside the box.

RYAN WILLIAMS
Co-Founder & CEO, ODESEA

“ I attend quite a few entrepreneur events and that was one of the best by far, both in terms of the content, quality of speaker and quality of attendee. I very much enjoyed Avnish's talk and insight also. It is easy to neglect your own health when working on your business which was a key message I took away (though I would say the pudding was delicious)! I shall definitely recommend E2E to entrepreneurs in my network.

E2E 100

INDEPENDENT

E2E 100 in association with The Independent

E2E 100 is a significant initiative designed to showcase the very best British companies. The tracks feature companies that are excelling, experiencing consistent growth and presenting disruptive business strategies. They are creating an impact not just in their own sector, but also on a nationwide and in some cases a global scale.

E2E 100 shines a spotlight on innovators and changemakers across the UK, highlighting their ideas and their drive for positive change. It provides us an opportunity to get under the skin of today's business challenges.

Six E2E 100 tracks will be revealed in 2023, focusing on distinct, but equally important, aspects of UK business, celebrating the companies and individuals making the biggest impacts in each category.

Each track will chart the top 100 UK businesses within the category, celebrating the visionary leaders behind each one of these success stories, and inspiring the next generation of entrepreneurs in the process.

“ It is critical that we recognise and celebrate the contribution of the UK's fastest growing companies and better understand the future challenges that they face. We welcome the 100 into our E2E ecosystem to support them with their extraordinary entrepreneurship.
